

Giorgos Giorgakis has graduated from the European University Cyprus, with a Master Degree (MBA) in Business Administration in July 2008. He has been preparing, managing and implementing more than 40 EU and National (FP, LLP etc) Projects since 2006. He has also been preparing and implementing various applications in regards to National and EU funding schemes for SMEs and physical entities so as to create and/or develop their business operations or innovative ideas and bring them to life. In addition, he has been actively involved in preparing and implementing various Public tenders especially in regards to HR Development, Management and Consulting. He is the founder and Managing Director of G.G Eurosuccess Consulting Ltd.

Main responsibilities: Administrative and financial management, Human Resource Management, Preparation of European and National Proposals, Management of European and National Projects, Management of projects of Publicity and Promotion nature, Management of projects of the Public sector, Coordination and management of National Human Resource projects dedicated to SMEs, Preparation and implementation of various training seminars within the organization, Design and implementation of promotion activities of the organization as well as the projects being implemented.